CENTRAL THEME / SUN IN HOUSE 12

Closure and restoration

The year is quieter and more interior. Rest, endings, private work, and the release of outdated roles create space for the next cycle.

EVIDENCE TO PRACTICE

How this year wants to move

Four calculated factors are translated into one grounded direction, followed by a seven-day test you can actually observe.

MOON IN SAGITTARIUS / HOUSE 4

Your emotional rhythm

Emotional energy lifts through movement, meaning, humor, and a horizon larger than the immediate problem. In House 4, those feelings become especially visible through home and inner foundation.

VIRGO RISING

Your way into the year

Improve what is close enough to change. This is the practical posture through which the rest of the chart is expressed. Jupiter in House 1 gives this approach extra visibility.

CLOSEST LUMINARY ASPECT

Sun conjunction Venus

At an orb of 0.07 degrees, this is the closest major luminary aspect. Sun is in Leo House 12; Venus is in Leo House 12. It puts identity and purpose in conversation with relationship, preference, and value. Notice when the two cooperate - and when one need quietly overrides the other.

YOUR SEVEN-DAY EVIDENCE TEST

Choose one small action that supports closure and restoration without demanding a complete life overhaul. Repeat or observe it for seven days. Each evening record what became easier, what resisted, and what evidence changed your view.

THREE QUESTIONS TO KEEP

01 Where am I waiting for certainty when Virgo rising asks for a workable first move?

02 What helps the Moon in Sagittarius feel supported without letting mood make every decision?

03 What would a visible expression of closure and restoration look like this month?
